MEMEFLIX

The Entertainment Quiz

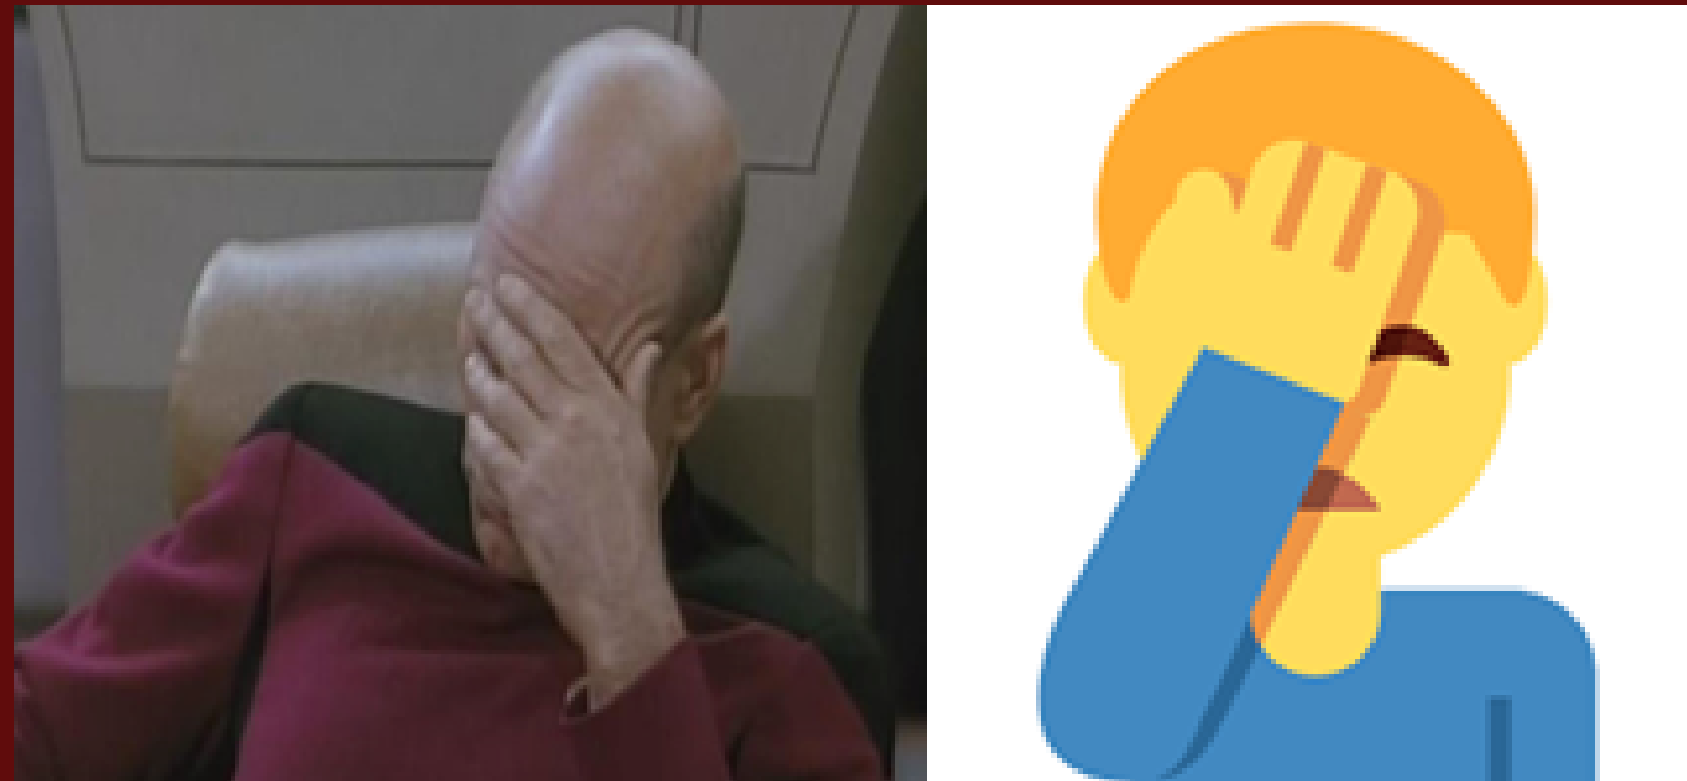

Q1.

The term X is a popular emoji, introduced in 2016 and was included as a word in the Oxford English Dictionary in 2011. It is used to express annoyance in text-speak and funnily enough, it originated from a Star Trek meme in 2004, in which the lead character expressed X directly on the screen.

Identify X.

Answer 1:

Facepalm

Q2.

Around the beginning of 2018, Reddit was technically involved in a Meme World War, where the “Allies” were subreddits led by r/prequelmemes, who began the war. On the other side, the “Axis” powers were represented by r/sequelmemes. The war was conceivably ugly and one-sided as the original World Wars.

The war ended when the mods of a few Allies subs were doxxed, akin to the “atomic bomb” for the Meme World War and ensued the peace talks that culminated in the Redditors from across the subs formulating a set of rules to govern future meme wars.

Give the name to this set of rules, a wordplay on another such real-life deliberated set of rules.

Answer 2 :

Memeva Convention
